

I've heard people say, "Let me know if you get any hot listings," because they want the inside scoop, or "I wish I'd known about that listing sooner!" because they missed out on a house they would have loved.

So, I wanted to give you a heads up on a listing that is hitting the market soon.

5672 Posada Drive will be hitting the market officially on August 5th.

Here's a sneak peek...

3218 SF, 4 Bedrooms, 3 and a half bathrooms, an office, media room, and so much more!!! If you're interested, or know of anyone else who may be, let me know!
